

SF-85P FAQ's

(Revised 041708)

Do not use your internet browser Back button when navigating within e-QIP. Use the question navigation buttons or the buttons at the bottom of each screen.

Although eQIP will allow you to select "I DON'T KNOW THE REQUESTED INFORMATION" when it is reviewed by the agency the form may be unacceptable. It is to your advantage to answer all questions with full contact information for all required fields, to avoid rejection by the agency and the need for you to edit/recertify the form, and update your signature pages at a later date.

SECTION 1 – FULL NAME

1. Q. Can I use my maiden name as my middle name?

- A. If it has been legally changed, you may use your maiden name as your middle name. Otherwise, you must use your legal middle name at birth or check the "NMN" box indicating no middle name.

2. Q. Can I use an initial instead of my full middle name?

- A. If your middle name has been legally changed to an initial only, you may use the initial and select "IO", which means "initial only". Otherwise, you must use your full middle name at birth. You are required to list your legal name as it is listed on your birth certificate. If you are known by any other name, you must list it in the "Other Names Used" section of the form.

SECTION 11 – YOUR EMPLOYMENT ACTIVITIES

1. Q. I have completed this section, but am receiving an error message requiring me to account for all periods of employment, without breaks, for the previous 7 years. Why?

A. You cannot have any gaps of time between dates. When listing the dates of employment, there can be no time lapse between the end date of your last employment/unemployment and the start date of your next employment/unemployment. You must indicate all periods of self-employment, unemployment or vacation as appropriate. Any gaps in these dates will prompt an error message.

Provide a detailed entry for each of your employment activities for the last 7 years. You should list all full-time work, part-time work, military service, temporary military duty locations over 90 days, self-employment, other paid work, and all periods of unemployment. The entire 7-year period must be accounted for without breaks, but you need not list employments before your 16th birthday. EXCEPTION: Show all Federal civilian service, whether it occurred within the last 7 years or not.

11. Q. Am I required to provide the verifier's complete address?

A. Yes.

12. Q. What if I don't have my verifier's address information?

A. Contact the verifier and get the information to provide on the form.

13. Q. What should I do if my prior employer has gone out of business?

A. Provide the employment information, then annotate "out of business" or "closed" in the comments field.

14. Q. Do I need the complete business name or can I use initials?

A. Yes. Provide the complete business name of the company. For example, IRS would be shown as Internal Revenue Service.

15. Q. What if my employer is out of state and I only have the PO Box for the address?

A. Contact the company to get the physical street number address of the building.

16. Q. As a Reservist, am I required to provide other employment information?

A. Yes. You must provide other employment information or periods of unemployment with the dates.

17. Q. If I worked for Temp Agencies, do I put the Agency as my employer or the job that I was sent to work as my employer, or do I use both?

A. Do not list both. The Temp Agency that you work for is the employer and that is what is required, not the job assignments.

18.Q. If I only worked for one day or one week, am I required to put that on the SF85P?

A. Yes. All employment activities need to be listed for the past 7 years.

19.Q. Am I required to provide employment that doesn't apply as experience for the job that I am applying for?

A. Yes. All employment activities need to be listed for the past 7 years.

20.Q. If I am self-employed, what should I use?

A. Select "Self-employment" along with your verifier information.

21.Q. If I am self-employed, can I use my spouse as my verifier?

A. Yes.

22.Q. Can I list my spouse as a verifier if I was unemployed more than once?

A. Yes. However it is preferred that you use a different verifier for each period of unemployment.

23.Q. What if I don't remember my supervisor's name?

A. You may enter "Unknown" in the supervisor field and explain in the additional comments field. You may also leave it blank and click "Save". You must then select "I do not know the requested information" when a warning message appears and explain in the comments field.

24.Q. What if I don't remember the phone number?

A. It can be left blank.

25.Q. What if I don't remember the address of the company?

A. Contact the employer to obtain the actual physical mailing address.

26.Q. Should I choose "Unemployment" if I am not collecting unemployment benefits? Can I use the Unemployment Office as a verifier, and if I am unemployed but receiving unemployment benefits, can I still choose "Unemployment"?

A. All periods of unemployment must be accounted for. This has nothing to do with collecting benefits. You can use the Unemployment Office as a verifier only if you have a counselor you are working with and have complete information with regard to name and address and telephone number. Select "Unemployment" and input the data.

SECTION 17 – YOUR SELECTIVE SERVICE RECORD

- Q. What if I am not registered with the Selective Service?

A. If you are a male born after 12/31/1959, YOU MUST BE REGISTERED with Selective Service to be eligible to apply for employment with the IRS. Rules regarding Selective Service registration can be found at www.sss.gov.
- Q. I went into the military straight from high school when I turned 18. Am I required to have a Selective Service number?

A. Please check the Selective Service website at www.sss.gov or call 1-847-688-6888 to obtain your Selective Service number. If you are unable to locate your Selective Service number, enter “NO” where it asks if you have registered. In the “Legal Exemption” box enter “Enlisted at age 18 and record the branch (i.e. US Army, US Navy, etc.).

3. Q. What if I don’t remember my registration number?

A. You can check online at www.sss.gov or call 1-847-688-6888 to access your registration number.

4. Q. How do I find out if I am registered?

A. Check online at www.sss.gov or call 1-847-688-6888.

5. Q. How do I register?

A. You can register online at www.sss.gov.

SECTION 18 – YOUR INVESTIGATIONS RECORD

1. Q. I previously was investigated what information do I need to provide?

A. You will need to provide the following: Date, Agency Code, and Clearance Code

2. Q. I previously was investigated, but I do not recall the investigating agency/clearance code how should I record this?

A. Answer ‘Yes’, enter ‘Other’ agency code or clearance code, as appropriate, and ‘Don’t know’ or ‘Don’t recall’ under the “Other Agency” heading.

SECTION 19 – FOREIGN COUNTRIES YOU HAVE VISITED

1. Q. I went on a cruise and visited several different countries; can I list them all in the same block?

A. Because you visited the different countries, you need to list them separately on the form.

2. Q. I live near a border and make frequent day trips to the neighboring country do I need to record each trip?

B. No. You do not need to list each trip unless it was more than 1 day. Instead provide the time period, the code, and country and in the comment section indicate “Many short trips”.

SECTION 20 – YOUR POLICE RECORD

1. Q. If I disclose that I have been arrested, charged, or convicted for any offense, will that prevent me from getting a position?

A. Your police record is a suitability issue and will be adjudicated by the Agency.

2. Q. What am I required to disclose?

A. You are required to list all arrests, charges or convictions, except traffic fines of less than $150.

3. Q. What if I am unsure of the dates I was arrested/charged/convicted?

A. You must provide estimated dates, and then select “Estimated” by the dates.

4. Q. What if my record was expunged?

A. In almost all cases, you must provide the information relating to the expunged record. There is one very limited exception involving only certain types of narcotics charges. You should not assume that any expunged record involving a narcotics violation is covered under this exception. This exception applies only to a first time offense involving the simple possession of a Schedule I controlled substance. Additionally, to be eligible for the expungement of this type of offense, you must have met certain requirements (such as the successful completion of a probationary period) and must have been under age 21 at the time off the offense. You must then have made an application for the record to be expunged and have had the application accepted and so ordered by the appropriate court. Expungements that meet this limited exception would have been made under the authority of Title 21, United States Code, Section 844, or Title 18, United States Code, Section 3607.

SECTION 21 – ILLEGAL DRUGS

1. Q. If I disclose that I have used drugs, will that prevent me from getting a position?

A. Drug use is a suitability issue and will be adjudicated by the Agency.

2. Q. What if I am unsure of the dates I used drugs?

A. You must provide estimated dates, and then select “Estimated” by the dates.

3. Q. What if I don’t know what drug(s) I used?

A. Enter “Unknown” in the substance field and enter all information you do have, including a thorough explanation and any additional comments.
